TERMINAL DISCLAIMER TO OBTAIN A DOUBLE PATENTING
REJECTION OVER A "PRIOR" PATENTDocket Number (Optional)
NY-LUD 5253-US5-DIVIn re: Application of: Thierry Boon-Falleur et al.Application No. 08/819,669-Conf. #1995Filed: March 17, 1997For: TUMOR REJECTION, ANTIGEN PRECURSORS, TUMOR REJECTION ANTIGEN S AND USES THEREOF

The owner, LUDWIG INSTITUTE FOR CANCER RESEARCH, of 100 percent interest in the instant application hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term of prior patent No. 5,843,448 as the term of said prior patent is defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 and 173, and as the term of said prior patent is presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer. The owner hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that the prior patent is enforceable. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

Further, the owner waives the right to separately enforce any granted on application 08/819,669 or any patent subject to re-examination proceedings, as well as U.S. Patent No. 5,843,448. The owner further states that any patent granted on application 08/819,669 or any patent subject to re-examination proceedings shall be enforced only for and during such period that the patent and the patent, or any patent granted on application 08/819,669, which formed the basis for the double patenting are not separately enforced.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of the term of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 and 173 of the prior patent, "as the term of said prior patent is presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer," in the event that said prior patent later:

- expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee;
- is held unenforceable;
- is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction;
- is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR 1.321;
- has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate;
- is reissued; or
- is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.
